

Did you know:

- The Daisy in Training Award recognizes and celebrates nursing students for the above-and-beyond care and compassion shown to patients and their families.
- The award was created in 1999 in memory of the extraordinary nursing care provided to J. Patrick Barnes during his 8 week hospitalization for an autoimmune disease.
- Each spring, TCU presents the Daisy In Training Award to a nursing student who is a level Junior I student or higher.
- Students, faculty, hospital staff, patients and their families can nominate a student!
