So, you want to be a nurse.
Discover what nursing is really like.

Like many people, high school students often have limited experiences with the actual role of a professional nurse. Discover TCU Nursing and you'll have the opportunity to participate in activities that professional registered nurses do every day. You’ll experience the importance of teamwork and excellent communication in promoting health, explore thinking and hands-on skills nurses need to care for patients, and use those skills in simulated health care situations. This TCU Nursing camp is designed to give high school students a first-hand look at the nursing profession, its rewards, challenges and opportunities. The participating teachers and mentors are TCU Nursing faculty members and community leaders.
