

Harris College
of Nursing & Health Sciences

Communication Sciences and Disorders, Kinesiology, Nurse Anesthesia, Nursing, Social Work

HCNHS Research Statistics

Number of Faculty: 90

Number of Undergraduate Students: 1300

Number of Graduate Students: 360

Undergraduate Departments/Units: Communication Sciences & Disorders (BS in Speech Language Pathology or Habilitation of the Deaf)

Kinesiology (BS in Kinesiology in one of the following emphasis: Movement Science, Sport Psychology, Health & Fitness, Athletic Training, Physical Education All-Level & Coaching)

Nursing (BSN)

Social Work (BSW)

Graduate Departments/Units: Communication Sciences & Disorders (MS in Speech Language Pathology)

Kinesiology (MS in Kinesiology in one of the following areas: Exercise Physiology, Sport Psychology, Motor Control, Nutrition, Physical Activity, & Chronic Disease)

Nursing (MSN in one of these areas: Clinical Nurse Specialist (CNS) Adult-Gerontology or Pediatric; Clinical Nurse Leader (CNL); Nursing Administration and Leadership; Nursing Education)

Social Work (MSW)

External Grants Awarded 5 year total (2011-2016): $17,000,000.00

Grant Management: TCU Sponsored Programs

Types of Grants Received: NIH, NSF, HRSA, Several Foundations, Independent Corporate Funders

Harris College Support:

Interim Associate Dean of Research: Dr. Emily Lund (designated person to handle & support grants)
Dedicated Statistician

Student Grant Support (equipment, supplies, field, or travel)

Faculty Research Symposiums/Student Research Symposium; 3 Minute Thesis